32 Years of Market Share Data Now Available

Manfredi & Associates has been publishing market share data in our March and April issues of Machinery Outlook newsletter for 30 years. If a reader pieces together the data from all the issues he would have a pretty good database of U.S. market shares. Now for the first time the data is available in a convenient form. Purchasing the data will save readers time and money. They will also receive all the changes and corrections we've made over the years as more accurate data has become available.
